

NASHUA, IOWA, WEDNES

Elias Bartlett, Civil War Vet.
Interred at Greenwood Friday

The remains of Elias S. Bartlett, former resident of this community, and a veteran of the Civil War, were brought here Friday afternoon from Waverly for interment in Greenwood cemetery.

Elias, son of Zenos and Pheoba Bartlett, was born June 14, 1845, near Wabash, Indiana; and passed away at his home in Waverly, Feb. 7, 1934, at 6:45 a. m., at the age of 88 years, 7 months and 23 day. His wife, who was Mary Medders, preceded him in death many years ago. He was the father of four children, three dying in infancy, and Arthur, who passed away March 17, 1930.

Mr. Bartlett served in the Civil War, enlisting when very young and serving until the end of the war as a member of Company H, 36th Illinois Infantry. He came to Iowa from Illinois in 1867 and settled at Pearl Rock in Chickasaw county, and for many years resided in this community.

He was one of a family of 12 children, nine boys and two girls. Four brothers and two sisters preceded him in death. Surviving brothers are: Elmer, who has been with the deceased the past few years; John, of Geno Junction, Wis.; Milton, Aberdeen, S. D.; Leonard, Waterloo, Iowa; Ruben, Nashua. Three granddaughters and four grandsons also survive.

Funeral services were held at the Koch Funeral Home, Waverly, on Friday, Feb. 9, at 1:30 p.m.

Mr. Bartlett was the last charter member of the Geo. W. S. Dodge Post, Grand Army of the Republic.
