
Chas. Hewitt Dead.

Charles Hewitt, an inmate of the Soldier's Home, at Marshalltown, died Saturday. He was the father of Miss Lillie Hewitt, of Waterloo. Of his death the Times-Republican says: "Chas. Hewitt, a member of the Iowa Soldiers' Home from Chickasaw county, died at the hospital Saturday afternoon, at 3:40 of marasmus. Mr. Hewitt was a native of Ohio and was 66 years old. He was a veteran of Company E, Seventh Wisconsin Infantry, having enlisted July 1, 1864, at Hilton Head, S. C. His admission to the home dates from Jan. 24, 1900, when he entered from Nashua. A daughter, Miss Lillie Hewitt, lives at Waterloo and has been notified. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made but the funeral and burial will probably take place from the home Tuesday afternoon."—Waterloo Courier.
