

Henry Walliser Dead.

Henry Walliser, one of the early residents of this vicinity, passed away at his home in the suburbs of Nashua Friday at 1 p. m. after an illness of about two weeks. Mr. Walliser had been a resident of this community for many years and had a large circle of friends. He is survived by a wife, four sons and five daughters, all of whom were present at the funeral which was held at the home Sunday afternoon in charge of Rev. Whitten, of Charles City and interment was in Greenwood cemetery.

A more extended obituary notice will be published next week.

HENRY WALLISER.

Henry Walliser was born March 22, 1826, in the vicinity of Froberg (Walden) Baden, Germany, the eldest son of Matthes and Rosina Walliser. In 1836 the family came to the United States, living for a few years in Philadelphia and in 1855 removed to Garnaville, Clayton county, Iowa, where he grew to manhood and married Anna Dickman. He came to Nashua in 1870 and a few years later purchased and moved his family to the home at Greenwood where he resided continually until his decease March 7, 1913, caused directly from uric acid poisoning.

His widow and a family of ten children: H. M. Walliser, of Charles City, Mrs. R. R. Waite, of Nashua, Mrs. John P. Waterbury, of Parker, S. Dak., Mrs. Hugh H. West, of Elgin, Ill., Mrs. C. W. Thompson, of Gary, S. Dak., Mrs. Marvin W. Ellis, Charles City, Joseph G. Walliser, of Grinnell, Charles E. Walliser, of Duluth, Minn., Ernest L. Walliser, of Charles City, and Florence Walliser, of Nashua, survive him, all of whom were present at the funeral.

For nearly 40 years he carried on his blacksmith business at Greenwood. From the door of his shop he could look out upon the public school in which he always took great interest, believing a good school to be the basis of good citizenship, and made it the important part of his life work to provide for his children the opportunities of obtaining a good education.

He served as a volunteer in company D of the 27th Iowa during the last two years of the war of the rebellion under General A. J. Smith, taking part in the Missouri campaign and in the battles of Nashville and Mobile. He was a member of the Nashua G. A. R. Post, which participated in his funeral services. The great Commander had called him and he was ready. He was a loving and influential father and an honorable citizen. Wholly unselfish he toiled and lived chiefly for others. His life was a success, love was everywhere in abundance.

The funeral services were from the home Sunday afternoon at 2:30 conducted by Rev. Whitten, of Charles City. Interment was in Greenwood cemetery.
