

THE NASHUA REPORTER - 14 MAY 1908

Mrs. M. C. Frost received the sad news Tuesday morning that her brother, I. A. Dockstader, had passed away in the hospital in Minneapolis, Sunday morning, after an illness of several months. The funeral was to be held from the home on Tuesday and the interment in Lakeside cemetery. Mr. Dockstader was a resident of Nashua for ten or twelve years, moving to Mason City about the year 1889, a couple of years later settling upon a claim at Sisseton, S. D. For the past six years he had made his home in Minneapolis.
