

Another Old Veteran Mustered Out.

After many weeks of suffering, David King passed from this life into life eternal, at his home in Bradford, at 12:10 Tuesday morning.

Mr. King had been sick with consumption for several months and for five months past, he had been confined to his home and for the past two weeks he had been expected to pass away at any time.

The deceased was born in West Chester, N. H., in 1822. From there he came to Bradford in 1842 and lived there for the remainder of his life.

Warren, survive him. He is also survived by one brother, Geo. King, of Bellingham, Wash., who was present at his bedside when death claimed him. One daughter, Nora, preceded the father to the other shore several years ago.

Mr. King was one of the pioneer settlers of Bradford, having made his home there for the past 34 years and therefore was well known to the people of this vicinity. For many years he was sexton of Greenwood Cemetery, and was an efficient man at the work.

The funeral was held from the "Little Brown Church" in Bradford, Wednesday at 2 p. m., Rev. Sinden conducting the services and the remains were interred in Greenwood cemetery.
