He lived in New York until 1852, then moved to Johnstown, Wis., where he lived one year, after which he came to Iowa. At the age of 19 years he enlisted in Co. On Nov. 20, 1866, he was married to Morella Neoms and of this union two children were born, Walter Parish of Thornton, Iowa, and Wilson Parish of Nashua, who with the widow survived him. He was a true friend and in the home circle where he was best known his loss is keenly felt.

The funeral occurred Thursday afternoon from the Methodist church, Rev. Otis Spurgeon officiating, and interment was made in Oak Hill cemetery. The members of Geo. W. S. Dodge Post and the W. R. C. attended in a body and the church was filled with the many friends of the deceased. The bereaved wife and her sons have the heartfelt sympathy of the community.
