

EDWARD M. SCHANK.

Edward M. Schank was born in Athens, Ohio, March 2, 1837, and came to Nashua about 33 years ago. He was a soldier in the war of the rebellion, serving a little more than three years, enlisting on the 18th day of April, 1861, as private in Co. F., of the 12th Illinois Infantry and was discharged therefrom on August 1, 1861. He then re-enlisted as a member of Co. C., of the 7th Illinois Cav., on August 12th, 1861, and was discharged for disability on January 20, 1863.

At the time of his death he was visiting at the home of his son, Fred, in Riga, N. D.

For many years he had been troubled with heart disease which finally caused his death, which occurred on Thursday October 23, 1902, at 7:30 p. m.

The remains were brought to Nashua, where the funeral services were held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. M. J. Mouso on Sunday, Oct. 26, 1902, at 2 o'clock, p. m., Rev. Ewell officiating, and interment was made in the Greenwood cemetery.

Deceased leaves a wife and three children, Mrs. J. F. Castor, of Republic, Mrs. M. J. Mouso, of Nashua, and son, Fred, of Riga, N. D. He also leaves a sister and brother in Neville, Ohio.
