Civil War Veteran "Mustered Out"
Thursday Night Following a Long Illness.

Jacob Shannon, a veteran of the Civil war, and for more than sixty years a respected resident of this vicinity, passed away last Thursday night at his home in Nashua after an illness of many months.

Jacob Shannon was born Sept. 29, 1840, at Otsego county, New York. When a child he moved with his parents to Illinois. At the age of 14 he again moved with his parents to Iowa, which has since been his home, except the three years he served in the Civil war in Co. G, 27th Iowa Infantry.

At the close of the war he returned to Nashua and February 10, 1866, he was united in marriage to Sara Miller. They resided on their farm west of Nashua until twenty years ago when Mr. Shannon's health failed and they moved to Nashua, which has since been their home.

Twelve children were born to this union. He is survived by his beloved wife and seven children, namely, John H., of Nashua; Mrs. John Beck, Nashua; Pleasant, Nashua; Bert, of Bellingham, Wash.; Mrs. W. A. Loos, Dows; Russ, now in France, and Mrs. C. H. Knight, who lives at the home.

There are also two brothers, Robert, of Sioux City, Iowa, and Ami of Charles City, and four sisters, Mrs. Young, of Nashua; Mrs. Cook, of Oklahoma; Mrs. McGilvra, Larchwood, and Mrs. Balch, of Quinn, S. Dak.

The pallbearers were Mr. Clark, Mr. Brown, Mr. Raymond, Mr. Idler, Mr. Bean and Mr. Shaw. They were all of Mr. Shannon's company in the war but Mr. Shaw.

Funeral services were held in the M. E. church Saturday afternoon, Rev. Green officiating, and interment was made at Oak Hill. Members of Geo. W. S. Dodge Post conducted their beautiful ceremony at the grave.
